1. Rest chieftain rest, now Co - lumbia is free, Rest for thy labors are o'er. . . ;
2. Rest noble chieftain, our nation is free, Rest on Co - lum-bia's proud shore . . ,

Rest in the silence free-men hath made thee, Rest on thy own native shore. . . .
Rest while freemen will ev - er deplore thee Rest with the brave, now no more . . :

Ent. acc. to act of Congress AD 1865. by J. Church jr. in the Clks. office of the Southn. Dist. Ct. of O. 869 - 4

Rest as thy glory floats over the sea, Rest for thy work is well done;
Rest chieftain rest, soon heav-en will wake thee, Rest where our banner shall wave rall.

Rest where arch-angels wait to receive thee, Rest on the soil that thou hast won.
Rest where in grace thy sha-dow reveals thee, Rest in the land of the brave.
